

IN THE CHANCERY COURT OF _____ COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI

PLAINTIFF

VS.

CIVIL ACTION NO. _____

DEFENDANT

FINAL JUDGMENT OF DIVORCE – IRRECONCILABLE DIFFERENCES

THIS CAUSE came on for hearing upon the sworn Complaint for Divorce filed by the Plaintiff, _____ (hereinafter “_____”), on _____ and the Consent to Divorce-Irreconcilable Differences filed by the Defendant, _____ (hereinafter “_____”). The Complaint has been on file for at least sixty (60) days prior to the date of the filing of this Final Judgment; the Court, having heard and considered the matter, finds that it has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter, and further affirmatively finds that the parties have made adequate and sufficient provisions by written agreement for the settlement of all property rights and all other issues raised by the pleadings, and that the parties are hereby entitled to a divorce on the ground of irreconcilable differences. The Court further finds as follows:

1.

Plaintiff is a bona fide adult resident citizen of the State of Mississippi, and has been so for a period of more than six (6) months next preceding the filing of this Final Judgment of Divorce and resides at _____. Defendant is an adult resident citizen of the State of Mississippi and resides at _____.

2.

The parties hereto are both members of the _____ race and were heretofore lawfully married to each other on _____; and _____ (____) children were born of the marriage union, namely: _____ (hereinafter “_____”), having been born on _____. Wife is not pregnant or expecting a child.

3.

The Plaintiff has charged and alleged that during the aforesaid period of the married life of these parties and just immediately preceding the date on which these parties separated on or about the _____ day of _____, _____, in _____ County, Mississippi, irreconcilable differences and other disputes arose between them, and they can no longer live together as husband and wife. Both parties are fully advised and believe that they are entitled to a divorce on the ground of irreconcilable differences, as provided by Miss. Code Ann. '93-5-2 (Rev. 2002).

4.

The Child Custody and Property Settlement Agreement entered into by and between the parties contains adequate and sufficient provisions for the care, maintenance and control of the parties' minor child(ren) and for the settlement of all property rights existing between the parties and should, therefore, be confirmed, approved and adopted by this Court as part of its Final Judgment.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the parties be, and they are hereby, awarded a divorce absolute of and from each other on the ground of irreconcilable differences, and the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the parties are hereby dissolved and held for naught.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the Child Custody and Property Settlement Agreement executed by the parties on or about _____ be, and the same hereby is, approved, confirmed and adopted by this Court in all respects. Each party is specifically ordered and directed by this Court to do all things agreed to by him or her under and by virtue of all the terms, provisions and conditions contained in said Agreement. The original Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit "A" is hereby incorporated into and made part of this Final Judgment.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the Wife is hereby restored to her maiden name which is _____.

SO ORDERED this the ___ day of _____, 20__.
